

WANDERING YEARS

Case of Massachusetts Brought to Light in Los Angeles.

ANGELES, March 19.—J. J. 66 years of age, who says that his home was in Brockton, Mass., he has been wandering for years with his mind a blank recall of his life, suddenly came today while walking along street in this city. On account of a policeman accosted him out his strange story. He claims that the last thing he was of being in Brockton, he believes the time was 1906. He previously lived there for twenty years, and was employed by the plant Telegraph and Telephone Co. He went to Midland, Tex., remembers reaching that city; then his mind has been a blank until today. He does not know how he got to Los Angeles nor when he got there. He has only 20 cents in his pocket, but will be taken care of and can be notified.

APPALLING NUMBER OF EXECUTIONS SHOWN

Carrying Out of Death Sentence in Russia Illuminated by Statistics.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 19.—The committee of the duma that has been examining the proposed bill for the abolition of the death penalty in Russia has been furnished by the police department with statistics regarding the activity of the military courts from January 1, 1905, to January 1, 1909. According to this information, there were, during this period, 3319 condemnations to death and 1435 executions. There were 683 additional executions under the special drumhead court martial law which was effective August 1, 1906, to May 1, 1907. The commission had decided that it is necessary to retain the death penalty for the most serious crimes in regions still under the system of "exceptional laws."
